

I and my family do oppose the weaking of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law to allow any company that we do business with to contact us via telephone. We do not wish to be bothered in the privacy of our home by these telemarketers and I think that should be our choice as we pay for our phone service. Thank you